P.C.:

. The present suit is filed in respect of goods sold and delivered evidenced by various invoices. The defendants say that the plaintiffs have no proof of delivery of goods and, therefore, the suit is not maintainable as a summary suit and secondly that the claim is barred by law of limitation. In so far as delivery of the goods is concerned the defendants have in their affidavit in reply have set out details of each of the invoices under which they have been delivered goods. In so far as limitation is concerned, there is part payment. Therefore, the claim is within time. In that view of the matter, with a view to give the defendant a chance to defend the suit, I direct the defendant to deposit in Court a sum of Rs. 5,00,000/- within a period of four weeks from today, failing which there shall be a decree. The amount if so deposited, the Prothonotary and Senior Master is directed to deposit the same in a fixed deposit with any nationalised bank initially for a period of one year and renew the same from time to time till further orders from this Court.

Affidavits list of documents to be filed within four weeks thereafter. Inspection within four weeks thereafter. Suit to be on Board of the learned Judge taking Commercial Causes.
